Saturday Skill Day

We will have a Skills Saturday where the elementary players work with the Varsity boys & girls basketball teams in different stations. This will give the elementary players a chance to interact with the high school players while learning different basketball skills and fun drills.

Date: Saturday in Jan. or Feb. –more info to come home later Time: TBD Location: High School Gym

Saturday Game Day

We will have one Saturday for games. Students will be put on random teams the day of the games. We hope to play 1 or 2 games on this day. Students should wear their t-shirt they receive for program.

Date: Saturday in Jan. or Feb. –more info to come home later Time: TBD Location: High School Gym

Basketball Buddy Night

The kids will have an opportunity to participate in a basketball Buddy Night at a Varsity Basketball Game. We will assign kids to different Buddy Nights after registration. On Buddy Nights the youth players would come to the JV game where they would play a short game at half time of the JV game, get introduced at the Varsity Game, sit on the bench at the varsity game and then play a short game at half time of the Varsity game. A schedule of Buddy Nights will be sent out at a later date.

Fee

The cost to participate is $25 per player and is payable to Community Education. Pay with check, cash or using payschools at www.barnesville.k12.mn.us. Every student that signs up and pays by December 9th will be guaranteed a t-shirt. Please mark a t-shirt size or we will guess and you might not like the size we choose. T-shirts run normal sizes.

Registering

Each student must have the paper registration form on file or the online registration form before they can physically participate in this activity. Fill out the form on the bottom and return it to the Community Education office along with the $25 fee as soon as possible and no later than December 9th Or register online here <https://www.locallevel events.com/events/org/barnesville-schools> and pay the fee at that location as well.
